(i) Government Order No. PWD 11 FCR 72 dated 19th May 1972.

(ii) Letter No. 466-68/72 dated 6th June 1972 from the Secretary, Mysore P.W.D. Employees (Work Charged) Association, Bangalore.

PREAMBLE :

The Secretary, Mysore P.W.D. Employees (Work Charged) Association, Bangalore, has requested Government to consider the members of the work charged establishment in P.W.D. may also be granted earned leave at the rate of 1/11th of the period of duty as in the case of other Government Servants. The Board of Chief Engineers has also recommended for grant of earned leave at 1/11th of the period of duty.

ORDER No. PWD 11 FCR 72, BANGALORE, DATED THE 21ST DECEMBER 1972/ 5TH FEBRUARY 1973.

The Government is pleased to direct that the members of the Work Charged Establishment in P.W.D. may be granted earned leave at 1/11th of the period of duty.

The Government is also pleased to make the following amendment to the M.P.W.D. Code Volume-I.

Substitute the following for the existing paragraph 73(II) of the M.P.W.D. Code Vol. I.

73(II): The authority competent to fill up the post may grant Earned Leave to such members as are employed on regular work from year to year upto 1/11th of the period of continuous duty performed and limited to sixty days at a time subject to the following conditions :

(i) Leave cannot be claimed as a matter of right. Discretion is reserved to the authority empowered to grant leave to refuse or revoke leave at any time according to the exigencies of public service.

(ii) A member of work Charged Establishment who absents himself from duty without leave shall not be entitled to any salary for the days of his absence and the period of such absence shall be treated as extraordinary leave without allowances. Absence from duty of a member of work charged establishment without leave granted by the competent authority, will also render such person liable to disciplinary action for misconduct.

(iii) That if no substitute is appointed the leave salary to such member of the work charged establishment on leave shall be the emoluments drawn by him before proceeding on earned leave and if a substitute is appointed, it shall be the excess of such pay, if any, over that of the substitute.

Exception :—In the case of a lone driver going on leave a substitute may be appointed against the leave vacancy and the incumbent proceeding on leave may be paid the leave allowances at the rate of pay he was drawing on the day before he proceeded on leave.

(iv) That leave shall not be granted unless the applicant has served for at least three years continuously including the period of extraordinary leave granted on medical grounds to such a member.

(v) That leave shall not be granted :—

(i) unless so far as can be foreseen at the time of granting leave, the services of the employees will be required for a period of not less than six months after the expiry of the leave ; and

(ii) unless the employee signs an agreement to the effect that he will resume duty on the work charged establishment should his services be required for a period of not less than six months after the expiry of his leave (on the forfeiture of his leave salary ; and

(iv) That leave earned shall not be cumulative beyond 90 days i.e., leave due at any time will be calculated only on the period of continuous duty then performed and that whenever duty is interrupted, all claims to leave earned upto the date shall be forfeited unless otherwise such interruptions are condoned by grant of extraordinary leave by a competent authority on medical grounds.
